

Letter to future self

Preston Precourt

January 30, 2019

Dear Preston,

Elements form bonds to get a full octet. Energy is released when a bond is formed. There are three types of bonds ionic covalent and metallic. Ionic bonds conduct electricity, covalent don't. The molecule is polar if its asymmetrical. A covalent bond is polar if there are two different elements. An ionic dot diagram is drawn with brackets.